On the beat ...

PCSO Allen and PCSO Bailey were out on foot patrol during the evening.

They spoke to four separate groups of teens/young adults around the area all of whom were happy to engage and have a chat.

PCSO Allen said, " It was good to make connections with some new faces and to have a catch up with the older ones!"

Burton Dassett Hills Country Park

There is an ongoing issue which we are trying to address, with many people off-roading in the evenings and nights at Burton Dassett Hills Country Park. This is an illegal activity and against the parks By-laws.

We always have sheep roaming the hills and unfortunately too many have been hit and killed by cars, as well as the damage to the grass and landscape.

The police do night patrols when they can, and if anyone is caught off-roading the police can issue a section-59 and, if caught again, the vehicle will be seized and crushed.

Telephone Scams

Your bank or the police will never ring and ask you to verify your PIN, withdraw cash or purchase high-value goods. They'll also never come to your home to collect your card, cash or purchased items. If you get a call like this, end the call.

If you get a call from your bank or the police, make sure you know who the person is before handing over any personal details. You can do this by calling your bank (the number on the back of your card) or the police (101) on a different phone line.

To get a different line, use a phone owned by a family member, friend or neighbour. This is because scammers can keep phone lines open after pretending to hang up. So while you think you're making a new phone call, the line is still open to the scammer, who pretends to be someone from your bank or the police.

Depending on your bank, the security questions they ask may be different, but they'll never ask you to authorise anything by entering your PIN into your phone.
