Appeal for information about series of burglaries

We are investigating a series of high value residential burglaries taking place across the county, with the majority of offences taking place in the South. The offenders are targeting large properties in rural areas. They're stealing gold, jewellery and designer handbags, and on occasion they're walking through fields to approach the properties. We particularly want to share the fact that the offenders are gaining entry via first-floor windows or balconies and are often using ladders to do so. We believe that they're using either plain coloured, non-descript vans or 4x4 style vehicles capable of carrying ladders. These burglaries tend to occur between 4pm and 10pm. We're appealing to the public to share any information that may be relevant to these burglaries, including dashcam or doorbell footage. You can report anything that you think may help us by visiting our website or calling 101, quoting incident 265 of 4 December 2025. Alternatively, information can be provided anonymously to the independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111. There are a number of ways you can protect your home from burglars, including ensuring CCTV systems are in good working order and securely looking away valuables.

Burglary prevention advice

Burglary is where items are taken without permission from inside a property, business or outbuilding.

Many burglaries are committed by opportunist thieves. While you may think your home, vehicle and property are secure, it is good to get into a routine. The below advice should help you to protect your property:

- Fit a good quality house alarm and explore the advantages of remote access CCTV.
- Fit good quality locks to doors and windows – and use them, keep windows and doors secure when you are elsewhere in the house. Fit a door chain and screen callers at the door carefully.
- Fit suitable security lighting and leave a light on a timer at home – especially when the clocks go back.
- Property mark your valuables, keep a record and photos – agree an insurance value and consider a floor safe.
- Protect access to the back of your property especially your garage.

Leaving the house or going away?

Your home can be more vulnerable when you are away on holiday or when your house is unoccupied for long periods of time.

- Use timer switches – available from most DIY shops to turn on lights, radios and other appliances when you're out.
- Where possible keep all valuable items stored safely and away from view.
- Get a friend, relative or neighbour to look after your home when you're away by collecting your post, opening and drawing your curtains and generally making the place look lived in. Be prepared to do the same for them.
- Ensure they have a key if you want them to enter your property. Never leave a spare in a hiding place such as under the doormat or in a flower pot.
- Cancel all deliveries to your home while you are away. Lock up properly before you leave and when you return home check everything is as you left it.
- Always remember if you are going away on holiday, out to work, or simply shopping, try not to make it obvious you are not in. Most burglars will only enter a property if they believe no-one is home.
