Witnesses sought to suspected road rage incident.

We're appealing for witnesses to a suspected road rage and criminal damage incident near Alcester. A man was driving his car up Gorcott Hill towards Hockley Heath just after midday on Thursday (20 November) when a silver Volkswagen caddy van is reported to have cut him up. When the driver of the van broke suddenly, the man overtook before the silver van overtook him again and slammed on his brakes – blocking the road in both directions. The driver of the van is understood to have got out and approached the man's vehicle – an Audi. An argument broke out before the Volkswagen driver is reported to have ripped open the driver's side window and punched the driver. The Audi driver was shaken up by the incident and suffered facial injuries. Enquiries are currently ongoing, and we are keen for any witnesses that saw what happened to come forward. It's believed several people may have filmed the incident so if you have any footage or were in the area at the time, please get in touch. Anyone with information is asked to call 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 quoting incident number 204 of 20 November.
